Economy---and Satisfaction---and The Real Pleasure of Good Music in a

Sale of Used Pianos

All Good Instruments In First Class Condition Guaranteed by, Loeser's

TE MIGHT HAVE CALLED this a surprise sale, because it happens at an unexpected time; but the truth of the matter is this: more homes have felt the need of music during the past year than ever before. Conditions have demanded it. The need of something to take away the bitterness of strife, and to bring harmony and gladness to tired hearts has made music the universal language. And so-

More homes have bought new Pianos and Player-pianos than ever before, often exchanging an older instrument for a newer one. That is why we have these good instruments to offer in this sale at the saving indicated.

This means, naturally, that homes without Pianos can satisfy the longing. If there has been an uncertainty about the cost heretofore, east the uncertainty aside; for here is an opportunity of the right kind-RIGHT because it offers thoroughly good instruments, placed in first-class condition in our own repair rooms, and sold to you with our guarantee. We have included also a few instruments from our regular floor stock that have become slightly case-marred in their service as demonstration instruments, but that are in otherwise perfect condition and of course fully guaranteed.

We sell these "used" upright Pianos at
